

Bio Data
Nyakeh Gaima
Assistant statistician.

Nyakeh Gaima is an Assistant Statistician in the Operations Division of Statistics Sierra Leone. He has three years work experience in Admin, Social Work, and Survey Research in the areas of health, and customs broker services. Nyakeh also worked with Medecins Sans Frontieres (MSF) as Health Promoter and Majidrah Clearing and Forwarding Agency as Operations Manager. Nyakeh is a fervent believer of team work and working collaboratively for achieving milestones and delivering key performance indicator results.

He is and remains to be an individual who is willingly to take up new challenges and make impact in complex working domains. His three years working experience cuts across several sectors such as operations, psycho-social, survey research and administrative work.

Academically, he holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History and Sociology. He also holds a Diploma in Procurement and Logistics Management and a Diploma in Project Management.